"Three are giants who kill the soul: pride, ignorance and laziness," said St. Mark the Ascetic, with more than a millennium and a half ago. And his words remain as timely today, when superficiality and sensationalism fardează human soul, precisely because the three giants happily give their hand. We feel that a tinge of doubt, to say the least, is present today among Christians, on what is the New Testament. If we did a survey among Christians probably as many answers I get how we tackle subjects. And I say this because many, when I hear the New Testament to the New Testament thinking. These lines are meant to be an answer to this question. Man has the ontological constitution call to perfection, and Christianity, through Jesus Christ, opened the perspective of eternity. Therefore the Christian era man is a guest in a communion of love with God, proven by loving communion with others. And in this sense, the New Testament is nothing more than a Covenant of Love sacrifice of God in history, in and through Jesus Christ. In other words, life is full of love alone can save humanity from any trouble from any disaster. Christ has shown us that only through perfect humility and love, brought to sacrifice evils can be eradicated humanity.

In this regard, he not only took upon himself the sins of mankind, but also accepted and răstignitorilor error when Father prayed: "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do". Even the position of the Cross, Christ saith: I even hated, even not want to receive my love, I wait for you until the end of time, I left my chest. Christ is the pain of a brother who loves and finds that the other does not want to receive love. He does not shrink, not impoverish, not consumed, but it hurts the soul of his brother - man, passing through time and past him and instead fill eternity by accepting the love offered to God, goes uncaring toward death. Agony of Christ is given precisely this refusal of the human welcome his love of which to feed their entire existence. It is at the same time, hurt and son Father accepts them love. If we realize what we lose by accepting God's will, if we knew what love we lose, we never tempted by any form of malice, hatred, envy, anger, etc., etc. Or, the New Testament is nothing but a covenant communion of love, a love given by God, through Christ's sacrifice, the man is asked to give an affirmative answer. And Christ wrote this covenant with his own life in the human heart, not on stone slabs, papyrus or parchment rather, to understand that the covenant is life man is living, is feeling. But the poor man soon forgot this and began to descend the message of God's miicimea instead ascend to his supreme calling.

Then closest witnesses of God's Covenant Love sacrifice apostles felt bound to draw attention to the remoteness of living essence of divine revelation. And so came the New Testament document, ie writings known as the New Testament scriptures, which were not intended to help the man to re-enter the river of God's love. It's quite difficult to catch the word depth of human experience, yet the apostles had this courage, but stating that what they witnessed was just a part of what Jesus did: "There are many other things which Jesus did, which were not written in this book. For if they should be written in detail all that he did, would not contain the books in this world" (John XX, 28). Therefore it is to be noted that the legal rules of any kind should be, civil or religious, they are not able to cover the depth, the depth of human experience. They are welcome to regulate behaviors towards better harmonizing social relations, although, in essence, they are inscribed in the human heart. In this regard, St. Ap. Paul even writes:

"The heathen that have not the law do by nature the law and the law inscribed in their hearts" (Romans, II, 14). That's why I wanted to make mention that when we talk about the Law of the New Testament, which is par excellence a law of Love, we must distinguish a fund primary essential - New Testament Covenant - a substance secondary fund that captures only part of the mayor - New Testament document.

The latter was not allowed by God to be misinterpreted, as happened in history, but to help the poor man to go out of the river of His love, do not lose the path, and if you wandered to know how to return. Unfortunately, things did not go that way. God's love sacrifice was not assumed by man, but sometimes use to cover their disability limits; It was used as a front, or conjecture. Pride Adam returned many times in history and man had the feeling that he might be he a god without God. This was, and remains even, error the last, when after the French Revolution, God has been banished from the altar honoring and replaced with two surrogates, who worship by mankind today, namely God - Progress and Goddess - Science. The remoteness of God, and hence the Covenant of Love sacrifice can be seen from the early days of Christianity. For how else can we understand him Simon Magus, who believed that the soul treasure can buy a handful of the drachma? He did not understand that only feeding and filling with love of God can be a Christian, that a Christ smaller, but like Christ, but thought he could remain the same miserable history and buying with money a shirt to dress and to cover his infirmities, to change their status. Moreover, he believed that the shirt can give him magical powers, even to God. He ended miserably, trusting and believing in its duplicity can ascend to heaven. Also away from the New Testament sense Covenant was and when, coming into the Church, philosophers Greeks instead to let his toga door they believed that the height of thought is their deeper than taking Love sacrifice to God in chenozei act of Christ.

Christ invites to receive his love, to heal their minds arrogance of thinking that I had made contemptuous of the nations, and they wanted to tell Christians that they have not properly understood the message of the Nazarene. And so was born a new reality, totally different from the one discovered by Christ, namely heresy known as Gnosticism. Gnostic feeling that Christ left a coded message hidden the many and possibly only known one, the more spiritual, more mind. Now operate Nous - minds at the expense of feeling, of living. The primacy of mind experienced by all factions Gnostic generated a myriad of apocryphal literature, justifying elitist behavior of the faithful. Thus were born the apocryphal gospels, like the Gospel of Thomas, the Gospel of Judas, the Gospel of Peter, the Gospel of Mary, etc., etc., known penalized and thrown in the trash, the Christian antiquity, but rediscovered and enjoyed the world Modern betraying a great deficiency in terms of understanding the past church. If Gnosticism was not sanctioned at the time, Christianity, the religion of the communion of love between God and man, had reached an elitist religion, accessible only some and not all possible. But God's love has conquered souls and Christianity came face clean of Gnostic miseries.

They followed other alienation and grotesque, because again the arrogance of the human mind wanted to bring God down to seat their own understandings and for centuries have been disputes on the person of Christ, are so called heresies Christological: Erazem Aryan Erazem pnevmatonah heresy Nestorian, Monophysite heresy, heresy and finally Monothelite iconoclasm. All these challenges, the Church responded firmly believe that God's love incarnate in history, the second person of St. Trinity, humbled and becoming man like us, but remaining fully God. Again he called the communion of love, not as Adam, an external act, but from within the human being, which Christ has made it completely without sin. And when he called us, showing us how we can respond to the invitation made, she opened it the first way to God through the act of extreme humility and love, accepting the cross, where he overcame max hatred of man, embodied in the crucifixion on Calvary. Far from being philosophy, Christianity proved it is a way of life, the simplest, most easily fulfilled and secure giver of joy, because it is the life of communion with God - the source of love, able to extend love from the soul hearted and horizontally from human to human.

To love all men, to prove that you love God, it is the whole essence of the Christian lifestyle. And the first Christian millennium elapsed between these coordinates, because the opening of II, reaching the highest responsibilities in the Church vain to tear people shirt Christ, by cooling the love between sunset and sunrise. Today we seek causes of an incident that could go unnoticed by history, but that marked the whole millennium of the Christian era, which we call a technical term the Great Schism. In reality it was a schism egos caused by two people as vain Cardinal Humbert and Patriarch Michael Cerularius. It was a schism at the top and induced peaks. Moreover, if it were not union attempts, neither would have ever known about this incident. Proof that after 220 years, when Lyon was proclaimed for the first time uniting the West with the East, promulgându the decree of union, when Christians have heard that we must unite and made the cross and Westerners and Easterners, wondering: but when we broke up, the need to unite? Poor Christians have grown still love two centuries after that in the name of love, Cardinal Humbert and Patriarch Michael Cerularius confiscates just for them !! Servants of God's sacrificial love, Cerularius Humbert and did not understand that the only way to master in history, permitted and pleases God is love and not dominion hatred. Or, they cast anathemas were only materialize pride, with great frustration of people who do not serve Christ, but Christ is using in order to implement their will.

And so I got brothers and sons of the same Father, for centuries, to suspect one another, to seek and publish weakness and not to join efforts for the propagation of love. But as Christians in the west, half of the II millennium, could not glimpse the work of love Christ in the world, even some of God's servants, tried to fire alarm signals, decoded especially voices prereformatorilor. Wicklif was a Catholic priest in England, but disgusted with the state of affairs of the Church, which had taken the place of love juridical justification, made the invitation to return, a return to the beginning. His error and all those after him, was not returned to the New Testament covenant, but the New Testament Document.

And instead of cultivating unity in love, work good works of love and sharing life plenary, the Trinitarian Mystery, he proposed a study individually, removing everything officially outbid western church. It has created great reformer Luther, himself a Catholic nun, an individualization of God's love, giving the feeling that discovering the truth until he accomplishes, translating the New Testament in German and giving him every believer for reading, interpreting and understanding . The price was enormous: rebelled peasants against any authority, for Luther had taught that there is another authority on earth than Scripture and so killed 100,000 peasants in the popular peasant war led by Thomas Müntzer, German priest ( 1521-1524). When Luther realized the mistake it was too late. The pillow flakes flew everywhere, bullets could not be turned spotless rifle lives lost could not be brought back to life, preparing snowball avalanche.

And so it happened. Christianity, in the communion of love divine-human and human interaction, was individualized, that man who was called to nourish their faith in faith always the Church, a faith community, alienated, increasingly reaching breaking direction love, born out dictum, so far in the reform era: Quote capita everything sensum, saying that we've adopted and sometimes even in liturgical practice as well known as: How many huts, many ways. So it was possible to reach today aberrant figure of 10,000 factions that claim to be Christian but are far more understand something of the New Testament covenant, because interpret and misinterpret words written on paper, no longer penetrate heart. These words, translated were lifted up 10,000 new founders of Christianity, as Christ did not know what and he called them to sort out his findings. Poor people do not understand that instead ascend to greatness of divine love, they exchanged the glory of God's own glory.

And the more cultivated this way of life, it was more terrible avalanche. Desecration was evident throughout the second millennium, especially in the twentieth century, the bloodiest in history when millions of people have paid with their lives for a few dictators alienation mind. It is enough to mention here that in this century Stalin killed 45 million people, Mao Tze Dum 37.5 million, Hitler 20 million, Cian-Can Shi 7 million, Pol-Pot 3 million and last place in a top ten dictators is Joseph Broz Tito, 1.5 million souls killed. How did this alienation of the human being ? The love of God began to be denied by humans since the dawn of the emergence of rationalism, believing that the human mind can do more than love of God that ultimately man can find more solutions to his problems than it would God be offered. And so it has come to believe that man is God, not small g but with big G. In conclusion, we can say with all responsibility that what happened in the last century, but is likely to continue into the third millennium, due to the fact that man forgets that the dignity of a Christian is to be always clothed and nourished with love, love God, experienced in the love of neighbor, the New Testament is the covenant of love between man and God and no negotiation or document reviews, the interpretations and misinterpretations; that the new law brought by Christ is the power and competition in love and not pride competition.
